

Parent Involvement Outline

FY:2023-24 McGuffey

Please list plan/activities with a brief explanation below.

*Please note, if these change during the school year, you will need to update this sheet.

1. Explanation:

Open House	Parents and children are welcomed into McGuffey to meet teachers and learn about the Title I Reading program through classroom visits with teachers and Title teachers.
------------	---

Books for Bobcats	The goal of this Books for Bobcats table is to foster a love of reading and ensure that all students have access to new books to grow their at-home library. We want our students to have good books to read during their breaks away from school. During our Fall Parent-Teacher Conference nights, we will have a table set up for parents to visit. Every family will get a book box, free book, reading strategies and resources appropriate to their child's grade level and have the opportunity to speak with
